ANYTHING GOES at the New London Barn!

The Barnies will strap on their tap shoes for the opening of the Cole Porter musical ANYTHING GOES on Tuesday, August 11th. The famed composer's music and lyrics aid in the telling of the wild antics and spontaneous love affairs that take place aboard a cruise ship headed from New York to London in this light, lively and entertaining show.

The fun begins when Billy Crocker sneaks aboard a cruise ship in order to pursue his love interest, Hope Harcourt. In order to get on the ship however, he uses the passport of the world's most wanted criminal, Public Enemy Number One. Dodging Security and Intelligence all over the ship, Billy vies for Hope's affection with the help of friends: Reno Sweeney, famed nightclub singer, and Moonface Martin, public enemy number 13. On his quest for love, Billy encounters countless obstacles, including the spontaneous development of romances not his own.

The Barn is thrilled to welcome back Hans Friedrichs, Joe Barros, and David Shaw for this production of ANYTHING GOES. Friedrichs, the Barn's Resident Director, returns after directing last season's production of Evita and after appearing as Roger Debris in this season's smash hit The Producers. Choreographer Joe Barros, a longtime "Barnie", was a member of the 2003 Acting Intern company, choreographed Evita last summer, and directed and choreographed this season's Monday night production, SUDS. David Shaw, also a Barn veteran, returns to play Elisha Whitney after recently starring in ART as Yvan, as well as acting in last season's productions of both My Fair Lady and The Unexpected Guest.

ANYTHING GOES is a truly American musical and features some of Cole Porter's greatest hits and spectacular dance numbers. Don't miss your chance to get on board!
