SUDS: The Rocking 60's Musical Soap Opera

SUDS, The Rocking 60's Musical Soap Opera will open on the New London Barn Playhouse stage on Monday June 29th. This vibrant musical, originally created by Melinda Gilb, Steve Gunderson and Bryan Scott flawlessly weaves together the story of a lonely young Laundromat worker with your favorite rock 'n' roll hits of the sixties.

The story begins when Cindy, a lonely young girl, is saved from her hopeless birthday celebration by two guardian angels, Marge and Dee Dee. Rivals and co-workers, Marge and Dee Dee proceed to offer Cindy advice on the ways of life and love, attempts that only lead to their own petty disputes and discourage Cindy further from believing in true love. Eventually, the spontaneous love and engagement between Dee Dee and unexpected Laundromat visitor, Johnny Angel, revives Cindy's belief in love. When the angels disappear at the strike of midnight, Cindy is left feeling confident in how to handle a man and eventually find her true love.

Each twist and turn in the plot is accompanied by one of your favorite sixties hits, including Aretha Franklin's Respect, Lesley Gore's It's My Party, and James Brown's I Feel Good, giving this musical and exciting yet familiar feel.

The Barn is thrilled to have Joe Barros back to direct and choreograph SUDS. Barros was an acting intern 2003 and is Artistic Director of the New York Theater Barn.

With its soap opera plot and exciting compilation of sixties hits, SUDS is a rock 'n' roll ride that will be sure to knock your socks off!

SUDS runs Mondays, June 29th, July 13th & August 3rd & 17th. The June 29th performance is at 8:00 pm only while performances on July 13, August 3, 17 will take place at both 2:00 pm & 8:00 pm. Please call 603-526-4631/6710 or purchase tickets on line at www.nlbarn.org.
